A new look for Mail Bid 72. Sometimes change comes from strange places. The new postal rates necessitated change to my format. As you can see, I am using an envelope. Also, I have increased the number of lots and scans.

In prior sales, 100 lots would fit on 5 sheets, and still qualify for 1 ounce First Class postage. Using the envelope, I can include up to 8 pages with a new weight limit of 3 ounces. So, I am giving you more scans, and, as you can see this sale ends with lot 107.

There is extra cost involved. However, for now I will assume that myself, and not pass it along like everyone else seems to do.

I welcome comments on the new format. Thank you for your past participation.
